Travelling by public Transport

You can reach the main building of the ETH Zurich from the Zurich main station:

- by tram Nr. 10 to the tramstop "ETH/Universitätsspital".
- by tram Nr. 6 to the tramstop "ETH/Universitätsspital".
- on foot to the tramstop "Central" and then with the Polybahn (red cable car) to the end stop "Polyterrasse ETH".

Travelling from the location "Hönggerberg" with the shuttlebus "ETH Link"

The ETH Link is available for ETH employees and their guests. This direct link between the Zentrum and Hönggerberg runs every 20 minutes from Monday to Friday. The buses run from the bus stop "ETH Hönggerberg" via "Haldenegg" direction Zentrum. You'll find the timetable using the following link ethz.ch/link-en →.

Travelling by car

The main building provides parking facilities (entrance via Karl-Schmid-Strasse). Parking fees will apply. For further information please use the following link ethz.ch/parking →.

Should you need any help orientating yourself please get in touch with the reception in the main building, entrance Rämistrasse (see "i" marking on the map), call us or use the ETH app.
